

About The Client

Buck Wild Kitchen & Coffee grew from the soil of Buck Wild Ranch: Family Farmstead & Apiary — a place where we've learned the value of slow, intentional living and the deep rewards of working with our hands and honoring the land.

Our kitchen is an extension of that life. We believe in clean, nourishing food, sustainable choices, and building strong roots in our local community. Every item on our shelves and every cup we pour is thoughtfully chosen — from small-batch, locally roasted coffee and fresh, handmade pastries to select kitchen goods that feel as good to use as they are to share.

We seek out and partner with local makers, and artisans who share our respect for the earth and a commitment to quality. Together, we create a space that supports mindful living — one that invites you to slow down, connect, and savor what's real.

At Buck Wild Kitchen & Coffee, we're not just serving food and drink — we're cultivating a way of life that's seasonal, sustainable, and fulfilling.

Target Audience

The coffee sippers. The ones in a hurry and the ones strolling along on a relaxing day.

Kitchen elements. To upgrade tableware and kitchen items. Classy, high priced.

Creative Direction

Clean, professional, fun, classy. 'Higher end'.

I would like to see them with a better home page. Clean up a few of their others and redesign it with a better/brighter color palette. Stay with the feel of the font but make it a bit more updated.
